

International Women's Day celebration at GBS-Hubli

Everyday has to be celebrated as Women's day says Smt. Purna Patil

Global Business School, Hubli organized the International Women's Day on 9/3/2012 at its premises in Bhairidevarkoppa to celebrate the International Women's Day. Addressing the students on this occasion the Ex-Mayor and Corporator of HDMC, Smt. Purna Patil spoke on how the role of women is diverse in the present days.

She gave a strong voice to the audience saying that all days are to be celebrated as women's day as she brought forth the significance of womanhood in present age. She also asked the young students to understand the Indian value system and uphold these values at all times. Smt. Purna Patil also called upon the students, that no matter how highly educated they get; they are to imbibe the attributes such as patience, understanding and appreciate and respect women.

The Guest of honour, Dr. B Ramesh, Ex-Dean and Head of commerce Department, Goa University also addressed the audience on this occasion and also stressed the fact that women's day celebration should not be just a day's celebration but to be carried all through the year.

He brought forth statistics as to how the gender ration between male and female in some states is a worrying factor and also emphasized the fact that only still 54% of the BSE 100-index companies. He also emphasized as to how this year the National budget has given its due importance by increasing the national spending on Women and Girl Child development.

A week long activity for girl students were organized at the institute by the Ladies association committee, competitions like Flower Rangoli competition, Mehendi design competition, Nail art competition, Hair style competition and one minute games were organized and all students participated with enthusiasm and excitement.

Faculty Ms. Diana G Hombal co-ordinated the event and the theme for this year was 'Women – they are special, they are unique, and they are beautifully strong, it's Time to STAND UP for them.'

Student Ms. Vinutha Prathapan compeered for the program, Mrs. Tazeentaj Mahat welcomed the gathering and Ms. Diana Hombal proposed the vote of thanks.

Back to Home