

DANDIYA RAAS-2K14

Navratri is celebrated in India with great devotion for 10 days. People play Dandiya and Garba. They ask the help and strength from the Goddess to fight against the evil. The Dandiya Raas dance is known for setting the festive mood and is most popular dance for navratri evenings. It is performed in the honor of goddess Durga. On the eve of Navratri, Cultural Committee of GBS is organized “ Dandiya Raas” on 29-9-2014 from 5:00pm onwards, followed by dinner.

For the first time at Global Business School we brought in the tradition of conducting Dandiya Raas for the students within the college. Another success to add this year. The Dandiya function was conducted by the cultural committee of Global Business School on 29th of September at the global business School Campus.

Positively most of the cultural committee organizers committed themselves towards a structured organizing of the event. Competitions were conducted for Best Male, Best Female and Best couple dancers. For a relevant evaluation of the competition we bought in a reputed two judges who were from the Gujarat Garba dance background and who were expert in the field of Dandiya dance

The event was commenced for all the students at Global Business School including the juniors and seniors; even we received a sportive and energetic participation by the faculties as well. It was very well observed that all the students took it positively and came with the theme of event with attires by girls as designers chudi, Choli, Gagra and bhandani dupattas, by the boys kurta, special turbans and kedias.

The flow of the event was first we started with the general round, 2nd with only the female, 3rd with the females, 4th for the couples and DJ party for all. Later we concluded the event with a dinner. Here are following students who bagged the prizes

- Best Male
 - Winner: Amit Basava
