Orientation program for the batch 2013-15

Well! It's always said that a good start is half done. Similarly the senior students of Global business School had their orientation as a good start while they enter their 3rd semester. The orientation function was conducted on 26.8.2014 in the GBS auditorium with a lot of mixture which included games, activities, dance and other events.

This orientation was wholly sponsored and conducted by the Idea Cellular team with the support of Global Business School. The team started their execution through segregating the seniors into two equal teams i.e. Pumpkin Pumpkin's and Honey Boney's and various nourishing events such as:

- Written Quiz Competition: This was the first event held by the team. It had questions in relation to various fields that a layman should know and as management students it was even more important. There were a set of 15 questions answered by all the senior students
- Information cum Vocal Quiz Competition: The coordinator of the Idea team orally gave various information regarding the entire Idea cellular company and later 6 participants from each team were called and asked 3 questions each regarding the information given
- Craziest Wish: All the students were asked to name one craziest thing or wish to say immediately and yes it was witnessed that various craziest and funny ideas were received

- An advice to Mr. Narendra Modi and Ms. Alia bhat: This event consisted of giving one advice to Prime Minister Narendra Modi and Alia Bhat. Various relevant ideas were given by all students
- Paper Dance: From each team 3 groups consisting of 2 members each were called for a paper dance. Here the students as a pair were supposed to dance on papers and after each round the size of papers were reduced. Winners were the ones who danced in the minimized paper till the end.

All the winners were awarded with a pen and key chain sponsored by Idea. Hence overall the event was an outstanding success.
