

International Women's Day celebration at GBS-Hubli

Live with your passion says Smt. Shravani Pawar

Global Business School, Hubli organized the International Women's Day on 12/3/2014 at its premises in Bhairidevarkoppa to celebrate the International Women's Day. Addressing the students on this occasion the Entrepreneur of Safe Hands 24/7, Smt. Shravani Pawar spoke on how a woman can run an organization which provides safety to many big organizations in the form of female security guards.

Chief Guest on this occasion, Smt. Shravni Pawar asked the young crowd if they all are happy making a living with the routine things or are they living with passion. She shared her challenges and difficulties of setting up an organization run by a woman with a business objective of providing security to other organizations through female security guards. And how her difficult choices made then are have borne fruits in the form of today's strong organization in the state with 400 + employees making a living because she made a choice to live with her passion.

The guest of Honor on this occasion, Smt. Dr. Savita Raichur, the famous dermatologist and cosmetologist addressed the young crowds on the equality of women and also brought forth the usage of cosmetics is now turned into abuse of cosmetics. And cautioned the audience about the dangers of abuse of cosmetics and shared the various ways to prohibit the same. She gave a call to the audience to remember to thank our mothers for all the hard work they put all throughout their lives to see their children prosper.

On 11th march 2014, the GBS College MBA girl students, a total of 33 students along with their faculty, Ms. Diana G Hombal had, visited and celebrated the women's day with the students at KSV. The students at Kalkeri Sangeet Vidyalaya are highly talented and specialized not only in academics but also in traditional form of singing and dancing. All the girls had a unique experience of visiting this school and were inspired to bring more change in the society and had their learning's of the challenges of Social Entrepreneurship.

Dr. Ramkant Kulkarni, Director, in his presidential remarks spoke about the importance of this day, and reminded the crowd how women have been the change agents in the society.. Faculty Ms. Diana G Hombal co-ordinated the event and the theme for this year was 'Women – Inspiring change.' Student Ms. Vinutha Prathapan compeered for the program, faculty, Mrs. Kiran Magavi welcomed the gathering and faculty, Ms. Diana Hombal proposed the vote of thanks.

